ORDER

Before the Court is the defendant's pro se Motion to Stop Leonie Brinkema DJ [sic] Playing Games with My Life (Docket #246) in which he lists a series of Court actions that he maintains have undermined his ability to represent himself effectively in this case. In particular, the defendant complains that the Court: 1) refused to accept his "no contest" plea; 2) refused to require the FBI to certify that it did not have the defendant under surveillance; 3) allowed the FBI to intercept his correspondence to the European Court of Justice and Parliament; 4) afforded him an inadequate amount of time within which to file pretrial motions; and 5) refused to provide him with a printer and a video player.¹

¹Although the defendant has never specifically requested a printer or audio-visual equipment, he previously referenced his lack of a printer in pleadings entitled Motion to Give Me a Chance to Defend Myself by Seeing Bro Freeman to Receive Out of Court Legal Assistance on Federal Law (Docket # 248) and Motion: Nobody Can Prepare Sept 11 in 14 Working Days (Docket #257).

Most of the issues raised in this motion have been raised in other pleadings filed by the defendant, pro se, and are either still under consideration by the Court or have been resolved.² However, the specific request for audio and video equipment to assist the defendant in reviewing discovery and the request for a printer have not previously been made by the defendant. The United States has no objection and the Court finds these requests to be reasonable. Therefore, defendant's motion is GRANTED in part; and, subject to any security measures imposed by the United States Marshals Service and officials at the Alexandria City Adult Detention Center, it is hereby ORDERED that the Clerk arrange forthwith for the defendant to be provided with a printer and video and audio players to be paid for with Criminal Justice Act funds. To the extent that this motion raises issues duplicative of other motions, the motion is DENIED as cumulative.

The Clerk is directed to forward copies of this Order to the defendant, pro se; counsel for the United States; standby defense ²The defendant has filed numerous motions demanding that the FBI and other government agencies certify that Mr. Moussaoui was not under surveillance before his August, 2001 arrest (Docket #s 231, 232, 237, 239, 242, 264, 265, 266 and 270. In pleading # 257 the defendant complains that he has not been given sufficient time to prepare pretrial motions. In his Motion to Confirm My No Plea Entry (Docket # 236), the defendant objects to the Court's entry of a not guilty plea on his behalf. The defendant addresses his correspondence to the European Court of Justice and Parliament in docket #s 240, 241 and 279.

counsel; the Court Security Officer; and the United States Marshal.

Entered this 8th day of July, 2002.
