Zacarias,

I came by to see you. I did not come by to argue with you or try to change your mind about anything, but simply to talk. It is Sunday morning and I just couldn't imagine not coming by to see you as I usually try to do and spending some time together. I will see to it that copies of the jury survey mentioned in your change of venue motion are provided as you requested. Your property will be brought to the jail - and your Power of Attorney is considered revoked as of now. Please let me know if there is anything else that you need. John
