DECLARATION

I, Lon D. Breedlove, give the following declaration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746:

I am a custodian of records for the Residence Inn.

I have examined Government exhibit MN00511. This document is the business record of the above named business.

As a custodian of records I am familiar with the manner in which the records are made and maintained.

The records were made as a memorandum or record of a transaction, event or act that actually took place.

The records were made by a person with actual knowledge of the events they record or from information provided by a person with actual knowledge of the recorded events.

The records were made and maintained as a regular practice and kept in the course of a regularly conducted activity.

It was the regular course of business to make these records at the time the event reflected took place or within a reasonable time thereafter.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
